"Beverley House", a palatial and imposing two storey residence is generally accepted as one of Mudgee's finest properties.

Boasting a magnificent hall, cedar stairway and soaring ceilings, there are five bedrooms each with an attractive bathroom, kitchen and living room. Some rooms lead to garden balconies.

Formal and informal living areas are stunning. There is also a study.

"Beverley House" sits amid a 2106sqm garden retreat complete with pond and garden features. There is also a spacious cellar below the residence.

Set amid a private walled area is a salt water pool.

There are five undercover car parks at the end of a meandering driveway.

The property is offered with an extravagant inventory of antique and period furniture and collectables.
