

133 Mortimer Street MUDGEES NSW

3  1  1

This restored federation style home offers all of the charms of a bygone era with the comfort of the 21st century. The property is located an easy 10 minute stroll to the heart of the Mudgee CBD. Within this distance there is a choice of two primary schools and Mudgee High School. The property boasts high ceilings and timber floors throughout, there are three very generous sized bedrooms, a large lounge room with bay windows and a window seat to add to the old world charm. To complete this property there are verandahs on three sides with a large entertainment area at the rear, with sliding doors which open into the near new kitchen/dining room. At the rear of the property is a carport with side lane access and a zinalume garden shed.
