The home has 3 bedrooms, all with built-ins and rooms are all a nice size. The paintwork and carpets are in tiptop condition. The kitchen is very neat and overlooks the large backyard with private Colorbond fencing. The double carport is at the side of the home with access to the home via the back verandah.

There is a pergola at the back of the home overlooking the established gardens with a garden shed for storage. This property should suit the discerning buyer looking for a lovingly cared for home with terrific gardens and position, close to the South Mudgee shops, Cudgegong Valley School and South Mudgee Surgery.
