The original homestead has benefited from a substantial refurbishment and extension which has retained much of the period features while introducing modern convenience and providing additional living space and accommodation.

- A wide front verandah and traditional federation facade create an imposing yet welcoming street presence
- Multiple living areas provide ample space for harmonious family living
- Spacious formal lounge room opening to front verandah
- Enormous north-facing family room with high raked ceiling, access to courtyard
- Generous dining room adjacent to the kitchen
- Large open home office could be used as sitting room/children's play area
- Well designed kitchen with stone tops, live freestanding oven, Miele dishwasher, abundant storage and bench space
- Decorative pressed metal ceilings and corncicing
